

Job Openings:Full- and Part-time Artist-Educators*Organizational Background:

Since 2002, Arts Impact (Formerly Progressive Arts Alliance) has been bringing learning to life through art by exciting students, teachers, and the general public with dynamic arts programs that integrate art into the curriculum. Arts Impact brings art to the classroom, and builds collaborative partnerships with teachers in a variety of art forms while providing inclusive and culturally responsive programs. Our specialized group of professional artists build an environment that helps students learn, imagine, create and innovate in schools, libraries and after-school programs throughout the community.

Seeking Artists:

We are currently looking to build our team of teaching artists by hiring a professional who can teach a variety of visual art forms. We are especially interested in digital animation, mural design, installation, mixed media, graphic design, photography, and filmmaking.

Qualifications:

- Creative, flexible, working artist committed to excellence
- Experience in working with children
- Strong verbal and written communication skills
- Ability to develop write lesson plans, or the willingness to learn
- Experience working collaboratively
- Positive attitude and respect for children and their ability to learn
- On-going commitment to strengthening teaching practice through feedback, professional development, and collaboration
- Ability to perform administrative duties related to lesson plans, scheduling, and evaluation
- Bachelor's degree and experience as a teaching artist preferred
- Commitment to arts education and arts integration as an approach to empowering student achievement

Candidates from historically underrepresented groups are encouraged to apply. Arts Impact employs, trains, compensates and promotes regardless of race, religion, color, national origin, sex, disability, age, veteran status, and other protected status as required by applicable law. The organization is a place where a diverse mix of talented people want to come, stay, and do their best work. Arts Impact runs on the hard work and dedication of our passionate and creative employees.

To Apply:

Submit resumé and cover letter to Maryanne Hiti, Program Manager at maryanne@artsimpact.org

No phone calls please